Alvin Coetzee a rugby fan

Okay, so the concept is good! I like it! I understand that this is still a development product but the navigating between the different tabs and features is troublesome. There is no real direction to join the services or setting up a profile. I did not find the reply you side you posted!? I'm sure you will come up with a conveinant why to invite friends.

What would be great is if there could be links to stories relating to the teams from thier official team website or from Supersport or SA Rugby. Maybe a predictor league.

I'll keep on with it and let you know what else I think

Antoine Fortuin

Antoine Fortuin: Had a look now and its a great idea! You can even add hashtags to the team names to make them searchable or something. I like that you keep the pages short as well so you don't have to scroll around too much. Login is quick and easy with app engine(provided u have google account) and I like the at symbol concept. This will be interesting! I suspect the work will be in maintaining this over a sports weekend! :)

Samir: Oh yeh

Samir: Incorporating openid login als

Antoine Fortuin: Perfect. Facebook login would be more popular but its a nightmare to keep up with.

Samir: Lol

Samir: True

Samir: Do u think the layout needs a lot of work

Antoine Fortuin: quite a bit yes

Antoine Fortuin: If u can keep the colours simple like it is then its just lining up stuff.

Antoine Fortuin: Ideal if u could use sports graphics but not sure on licensing

Antoine Fortuin: Enough features for the layout not be be so important right now.

Antoine Fortuin: Focus on that later on I think.

Samir: I'm trying to understand how to market it

Samir: Mayb just sport team logos and user profile pics for now..

Antoine Fortuin: Yes

Antoine Fortuin: Given that's it a mobile app I would assume your target market to be below 40yrs, not meeting their mates to view the game together and able to understand how to use software like this.

Samir: Yeh, guys that are already using mobile sites like facebook and twitter

Samir: Also have a feature where u can see where ur fellow mates r on a map

Samir: But not including that yet

Antoine Fortuin: Hm. That feature wouldn't appeal to me. I would prefer my profile including teams I support in various sports types and leagues.

Samir: Like fan support clubs

Antoine Fortuin: Eg, Bafana Bafana, man u, ajax ct

Samir: Like the arsenal or man united support club

Antoine Fortuin: Yes

Antoine Fortuin: Doesn't need to be a club

Antoine Fortuin: Just what I support on the profile

Samir: How wud that work though, I will need a profile

Samir: That people can 'follow'

Antoine Fortuin: No no

Antoine Fortuin: I'm saying that when someone makes a comment I want to be able to see their profile when I click on it to see who they support

Antoine Fortuin: And befriend them (like facebook) if possible to invite for chats when a game is on.

Antoine Fortuin: I assume the game comments will get flooded when the app is very popluar

Antoine Fortuin: :)

Antoine Fortuin: Maybe have a private version of the match comments so only you and your friends can chat? But that's a feature for much later when the existing comments are swamped by volumes.

Antoine Fortuin: Which is called a good problem to have. :)

Antoine Fortuin: I like it tho. You have enough for ppl to use right now. Maybe use word of mouth with your existing circle during alpha and beta to get things moving as u currently are.

Antoine Fortuin: then when u ready launch with a google ad campaign when u know u can make money and have an seo optimised site to get traffic.

Samir: I've got the profile feature

Samir: Just need to create a connections data model

Samir: Like if u login

Samir: And click on a match

Samir: U can view the contacts profile

Antoine Fortuin: I may do a similar thing. Currently use my own login code but may ditch it.

Samir: But can't add them yet

Antoine Fortuin: Ok

Samir: Similar thing?
Antoine Fortuin: That's good for now
Samir: R u developing somthing like this?
Antoine Fortuin: Helps understand who you talking to
Antoine Fortuin: Yes
Antoine Fortuin: Wait
Antoine Fortuin: What u mean similar thing?
Samir: Like matchcomment
Samir: A sport microblogging n social network
Antoine Fortuin: No no
Antoine Fortuin: I can tell u now$
Antoine Fortuin: Video game rentals
Antoine Fortuin: Retail website
Antoine Fortuin: :)
Antoine Fortuin: Gtg
Antoine Fortuin: Chat later
Samir: Aha ok
Samir: Chat later
Samir: Great idea, wud like to see it
Samir: That's a niche

Jongi

jongilanga: its a nice app
how about getting a facebook app as well me: wot do u like about it jongilanga: for it
me: yeh im gonna spread it soon.. just need to clean the features up and look wot do u like about it so far?
or dislike jongilanga: oops
ok, about your app
I like it well the look and feel and really not a person to ask me: i want the fans to control the content instead of sites like supersport jongilanga: if it works, that is my philosophy me: where the media controls stuff wot do u like about it jongilanga: oh that will be cool but you need to control the content some times you don't want people to say f* devil me: yeh..will need to work that out..have a role where certain users control leagues and matches
ie. and can moderate wot is being said and certain users update the score to keep it accurate jongilanga: cool, I've seen things like match cast from FIFA
I was working on the world cup, but the updates were so cool am not a radio fan
so I think I will use this app too me: i want to make it simple i think the fact u can browse from ur phone mite appeal like if u sit in the stadium or on ur coach
spectators like to be coaches jongilanga: cool

-Have a look at the post I made under stormers vs Lions Those arrows are suppose to be new lines. I don't think I know how that whole @h an @a works, I thought that @h would display the home teams name. It seems the colous corresponds only?
- By my post it appears that you cant use @h and @a in the same line? only one colour will show?

- The whole setup is a bit to close to the left of the screen, spacing between words and the left of the screen needs to be increased.
- In the profile section, I have to delete the word 'None' before I can put in my name, surname and where ever 'None' Appears. Could you program the 'None' to disappear when u edit, but appear when it's left blank?
- Default gender is female, shouldn't this be changed to male because you will probably be getting more male users than female, and people don't like editing too much settings?
- To upload a 'profile pic', does the photo have to be on photobucket, can't you upload from a computer or cellphone?
- I tried accessing this from my computer, couldn't update my profile nor comment.
- Is it not possible to add matches ourselves?

Qonieta Davis

I had the opportunity to visit the site yesterday during the Stormers/Lions game. I'll start with my dislikes simply because all of it is related to my own connectivity problems and I want to get these out of the way. I'll mention these as it was part of the experience.

Dislikes:

The phone browser had some problem connecting to the internet (so, long wait).

The server then experienced some sort of problem and finally I believe all of this is related to the network reception in the area. This usually isn't really good here.

It took me a few minutes to figure out that I actually had to log in first (in hindsight that was rather obtuse of me).

I also had a bit of time figuring out how to comment and join the game (this may also be credited to a very "vague" moment of mine).

Likes:

I really like the concept as I think it speaks to the way alot of us live these days. We want to be connected to everything and want our opinions or inputs to be known.

I really enjoy the idea of us using this site as "couch - coaches".

The experience of reading the commentaries of the other guys was interesting because eventhough I didn't watch the game it gave me a feel for what was going on.

I also like the idea of sharing game opinions on a wider base than just those guys sitting around the telly or radio.

I liked the concept you have for specifically directed comments at the home or away teams and the ref.

As far as functionality is concerned (after my obtuseness gave way to intelligent thought) I found the site easy to navigate, although a bit sparse but, I understand that as this is a test site.

I hope my two cents worth is helpful..I look forward to seeing further developments . I'll let you know if I think of any other impressions I get from using Matchcomment.

Thanks for the opportunity to test the concept. All the success with your endeavour.
